

share of cases on which two models give the same modal outcome

